PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear family and friends of FUMC,

This past Christmas, my sons gave me two gifts that I would not have chosen for myself: a robot vacuum and a dash cam. To be honest, I wasn't quite sure what to do with either of them at first. I am not especially tech-savvy, so they had to set them up for me. And I wondered whether I would actually use them or simply admire them from a distance.

But as the weeks passed, I began to understand these gifts differently. The robot vacuum quietly moves through my home, tending to the floors without being asked. The dash cam sits faithfully in my car, watching the road, offering an added sense of safety and care. Slowly, almost unexpectedly, these unfamiliar devices became part of my daily life. And as I used them, I realized something deeper: these were not just high-tech gadgets meant for convenience. They were expressions of love.

My sons chose these gifts because they know my life, my rhythms, and my needs—sometimes better than I know them myself. These gifts carry their concern for my well-being, their desire to help me, protect me, and make my everyday life a little easier. In a quiet way, I feel their presence through them. Even when we are apart, their love accompanies me.

This experience has stayed with me as we move into February—a season when we often reflect on love, presence, and care. Love does not always come in dramatic gestures. Often, it arrives in practical forms: something that supports us, watches over us, or quietly serves us in the background. Love notices the small details of daily life and meets us there.

Isn't this also how God often comes to us? God's love is not always loud or flashy. Sometimes it shows up as steady provision, gentle protection, or unseen care that carries us through our days. Like those Christmas gifts, God's presence surrounds us in ways we may not immediately recognize—but once we do, we realize we were never alone.

As we journey through this season together, my prayer is that we would notice the many ways love is already at work in our lives—through family, through community, and through God's faithful presence. May we receive those gifts with gratitude, and may we also become gifts of love to one another in the ordinary, sacred moments of everyday life.

In peace,
Ho-Soon

FUMC HERITAGE HAPPENINGS

In 1811 Rev. Leonard Frost became pastor, the membership having increased from four to ninety-one. The next year seventeen were added under the ministry of Rev. Abner Clark. (McDuffee 1988, 262)

Rev. Jacob Sanborn, a young man of remarkable ability, was stationed here in 1813. He performed a large amount of work with much profit to the society. After many years of service he died in Concord. (McDuffee 1988, 262)

Rev. Jacob Sanborn was born in Unity, NH, May 16, 1788. He commenced preaching on August 14, 1811 and joined the N. E. Conference in June of 1812. He was an agent for Wesleyan University in 1846. He was stationed at important places in New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island, as pastor, and in charge of large districts as Presiding Elder. He became a supernumerary in 1850, and a resident of Concord, NH, but preached more or less frequently, often regularly, until May 10, 1863, when he preached for the last time at Pembroke, NH, where he was first stationed by the N. E. Conference in 1812. He died at Concord, NH, March 16, 1867. His second wife, whom he married June 21, 1826, survived him.....Jacob Sanborn "belonged to the heroic age of N. E. Methodism, and was a hero among the moral heroes of that time." He was eminently a good pastor, a powerful preacher, and deserved the excellent reputation which he won by his laborious and faithful services. (The Granite Monthly, Vol VI, No. 8, May 1883, Pages 234-235)

In 1814 Rev. Harvey Morey was the pastor. He was a man of great physical strength and a successful minister. He married Meribah, sister of Caleb Dame, and after some years located in Rochester where he died Oct. 29, 1830. His wife was one of the first who helped to plant Methodism in this town, and her life was that of a consistent Christian. Their bodies rest in the old cemetery on Haven's Hill. (McDuffee 1988, 262)

Fuel Assistance For Our Church

Dear Members and Friends of FUMC,

As noted in the past Messenger, "Our congregation is blessed with the beautiful space in which we gather each week for worship." The magnificence of our sanctuary, built in 1868, is a wonderful and sacred space to join together.

In addition to our spacious sanctuary, we are fortunate to have conference rooms for meetings and studies, classrooms for Sunday School, dedicated space for the our youth to meet, a chapel for smaller worship gatherings, a remarkable library and media center, kitchens, restrooms, and Hurd Hall– a place for fellowship, meals, entertainment and mission service.

Needless to say, with these blessings, which are an integral part of our church family's everyday life, comes the great responsibility for wise stewardship of them.

Throughout the year, the church's various spaces are used often by many groups, which has an impact on fuel usage. As I write this letter, 2025 is ending in a deep freeze, with the early days and weeks of 2026 looking to continue this trend. The deep cold bring increased fuel usage to keep properties functioning and safe.

Many of us are blessed in what God gives to us, and share these blessing in many ways throughout the year. Contributions to the fuel fund is one way we can show our appreciation by giving back.

If you are able to give, there are several ways to contribute:

- * Fuel fund envelopes can be found in the sanctuary
- * Online through our website www.firstumcrochester.org
- * Through the Vanco link electronically <https://secure.myvanco.com/YJFD/home>
- * Mail a check to church noting Fuel Fund in the note section

Please accept our thanks from the Finance Committee for considering how you are able to help keep our church warm for the winter, and any financial support you are able to give.

Cynthia Sparks, Chair Stewardship and Finance Committee

As Paul wrote to the church in Corinth:

"So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good

IT'S TIME AGAIN TO THINK ABOUT GOING TO WANAKEE FOR SUMMER CAMP.

Another wonderful summer at Wanakee is just around the corner. We are excited to welcome new and returning campers for a season full of growth, friendship and adventure.

Families who register by March 15th will receive a $50 early registration discount on full-week sessions. It's a great way to save and reserve your camper's spot before sessions fill up.

Wanakee is a co-ed sleep-away camp in Meredith, NH, in the foothills of the White Mountains. It is located on 227 acres that include wooded trails, half a mile of lakefront on Lake Pemigewasset and open fields.

The camp's mission is to love, accept, challenge and provide opportunities for growth to all God's people, help individuals interact with one another, build relationships and grow in their Christian faith through experiences with a Christian community.

If you are interested in more information, program details, dates, and rates are available at wanakee.org/dates-and-rates.

Financial hardships should not stop a child from attending camp. Scholarships are available through the camp and also in the church office for youth attending.

Missions and Outreach

Tri State Rural Mission Team

Would you like to share your skills and love of God with others? The next mission team date has been set for June 28-July 3. We would love to have a full crew attend and are looking to get youth, chaperones and church members involved. We leave on a Sunday afternoon and return Friday evening. Can't attend for the full week, that's fine. Come when you can.

The cost for the week is $350. The cost can be prorated on a daily basis ($70) based on attendance. The cost includes lodging at the facility, food, and help with the cost of materials needed for the ministry to complete the work. Financial scholarships are available through UMEM and also through FUMC for participants.

There are many jobs to be done. Everyone is an asset to the team. You could plant a garden, sort greeting cards or clothes, prepare meals, paint, hang sheet rock, or build a deck with an access ramp are just a few items on the "to do" list. Please prayerfully consider this ministry that helps the needs of the rural communities of Maine.

The United Methodist Economic Ministry is located in Salem, Maine, about a 3 hour drive from Rochester. Cannot participate? Monetary donations are gratefully accepted.

If you are interested in learning more or being a part of this mission team, please contact Ken Downes at 603-970-0131 or kdld@metrocast.net.
