† AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

God of abundance,
we thank you for your gifts!
You have created all things by your Word,
and created us in your image.
We are in awe, and full of wonder.
Christ, our healer, teacher and savior,
we thank you for your gifts.
You have gathered us
into a community of hope and compassion.
You have given us your blessing
and offered to us your wisdom.
You have filled us with you Spirit and your love.
You died for us,
and rose that we too might die and rise in faith.
So we follow you with trust and gratitude.
Holy Spirit, you give us gifts with which to serve God and our neighbors.
You make us into one body by the grace of your presence,
with the power to forgive.
Trusting in the mystery of resurrection
and your presence within us,
we devote ourselves to you,
Holy One, in courage and compassion.
And in all things, we thank you!
Thank you! Thank you! Amen.

THE CHURCH HEARS THE WORD OF GOD

New Testament Lesson:      2 Timothy:1 1-14      (Pg. 966) **

Anthem:      What God Can Do      Don & Nancy Besig

When I see the sun in the morning on the flowers fresh with dew,
I can feel the wonder of God's great love and I see what He can do.
When I hear the song of the sparrow
    and the wind that blows through the trees,
all the sounds of God's creation help to keep my heart at ease.

There's beauty all around me in every living thing.
God's miracles astound me, and they make my spirit sing.
In the quiet shadows of evening when the day is almost through,
I can look ahead to tomorrow for I've seen what God can do.

This is my father's world. He shines in all that's fair.
In flowers and trees, in skies and seas his love is everywhere.

All the wonders of creation God has made for us to share.
We can see His presence all around, for his works are everywhere.
In his gift of life which He gives us as we start each morning anew, we can feel His love grow within us and we see what God can do.
